

Eagle Mountain Landfill

Desert Tortoise Habitat Threatened

- Major Roads
- National Monument Boundary - 1936
- Department of Defense
- Bureau of Land Management
- US Fish and Wildlife Service
- Bureau of Land Management Wilderness
- US Forest Service
- National Park Service
- National Park Service Wilderness
- State Land
- Bureau of Indian Affairs
- Desert Tortoise Habitat**

* Average and maximum raven range as described in: Boarman, W.I., R.J. Camp, M. Hagan, W. Deal. 1995. Raven Abundance at Anthropogenic Resources in the Western Mojave Desert, California. Report to Edwards Air Force Base, CA. National Biological Service, Riverside, CA.

** Desert tortoise habitat derived from values 0.7 - 1.0 (95% of presence points fell within this range; average 0.84) of the USGS Maxent Model: Nussear, K.E., Esque, T.C., Inman, R.D., Gass, L., Thomas, K.A., Wallace, C.S.A., Blainey, J.B., Miller, D.M., and Webb, R.H., 2009, Modeling habitat of the desert tortoise (Gopherus agassizii) in the Mojave and parts of the Sonoran Deserts of California, Nevada, Utah, and Arizona: U.S. Geological Survey Open-File Report 2009-1102, 18 p.

